The releasee has paid the special assessments imposed in full; however, she has not been able to complete payment of her restitution order. She is self-employed, having started her own home-cleaning business, and has paid restitution to the best of her ability. Her outstanding balance owing is $5,601.32. She has been totally compliant in all other areas of her supervision, has remained drug-free, and has not incurred any new arrests or convictions.

United States Probation Officer Plan/Justification: It is recommended the releasee's term of Supervised Release be allowed to terminate on May 23, 2005, as scheduled, and
